Blessings until we meet again

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus at Holy Trinity Church:

Years ago, when I was a radio announcer, I would say "the hits just keep on coming." That was referring to the musical recordings of the time. My letter today is more in reference to my personal winter and spring.

Yesterday, I received the news that I will undergo open-heart surgery this coming Wednesday. Little did I know that last Sunday was my last Sunday to be with you at Holy Trinity. I am quite saddened by this unfortunate turn-of-events. I am confident of your understanding, and I would appreciate your prayers for the surgery itself as well as the recovery to follow. Maybe extra prayers for Marcie would be a good idea.

I have genuinely enjoyed my time with all of you. Holy Trinity is a great church and I share your hope that the best days are ahead. I will be praying with you that those who may have drifted away during the pandemic, for any number of reasons, will someday return to the place where they are loved and known by name. I join you in prayer that church participation itself will regain its place as the most important time during one's week.

I have great confidence in your Wardens Kevin and Genia and the Vestry officers and members as well as a wonderful staff. I hope you will also care for them, help them, listen to them and read the information that is presented to you.

I thank you so much for your kind words and love expressed to both of us.

May our Lord Bless You and Keep you always.

Fr. Don and Marcie Davidson

A big thank you to every one that made chemo hats these past 2 years.
We had 264 blessed on June 13th and they will be distributed to cancer centers in our community.
We will also keep some on hand, so if you know of any one that could benefit from one, please let Lynda Adams or Barb Kuzins know and we'll get you one.
Thanks again and keep on stitching.
Barb Kuzins

Phase III begins July 4

On July 4, Holy Trinity will begin Phase III of the Diocesan plan for re-entry as composed by the four Episcopal Dioceses of Michigan.

You no longer must wear masks, but for those who are still vulnerable to the Covid disease masks should be worn. Everyone is welcome to wear a mask. Social distancing is no longer required, however two sections in the nave will be specifically marked for those who would rather not sit closely with others. We will keep a roster, and communion will be available in one-kind.
